What Are The Senior Breakaway Camps?

Our Mission statement is:

We have two camps. A Junior camp and a Senior camp.

Junior camp is for children from Year 3 to year 6 and Senior Camp is for children from year 7 to 12. Breakaway Camps are held during the January School Holidays.

The young people come from all over the Southern Highland region as well as Wollongong, Nowra and Sydney.

The Directors Of Junior Camp Are:

Dan and Fernne Johnston - fernedan@breakawaycamp.org.au

The Director Of Senior Camp Is:

Andrew Barrs - 0400 800 226 andrew@breakawaycamp.org.au

What Does Being A Leader Involve?

There are a few things that are required by the camp committee and they are: -

1. We require that you be a regular church attendee and be active in your home church. (We require that someone in a leadership role within your church fill in a confidential reference form).
2. We require that you sign a NSW Govt. “Prohibited Persons” Statuary Declaration
3. We ask that you aim to come to the preparation meetings and come prepared for camp.
4. We ask that you commit yourself to appropriate follow- up of the campers for 12-months after the camp.

What Kind of Person Is A Leader?

Breakaway Camp asks for a year long commitment to our camps from the Leaders. Leaders are required to come to camp prepared for any task they have volunteered to plan and execute. Breakaway Leaders are required to attend Breakaway Conference (a planning and training weekend) before camp each year. Breakaway Camp Leaders are required to pay to attend Camp and are all volunteers.

- Our Camps provide Bible teaching, games and all sorts of fun for the Campers. The Leaders are asked to participate whole heartedly in all these activities and are also asked to volunteer to help plan activities of their choice to fit into the overall programme for camp.
- Our Leaders are required to stay in the same room as their Campers. Leaders will be paired, or sometimes in groups of three, with others of the same gender to share their room. They are responsible to look after the young people placed in their care. This may require giving medication, changing wet beds or wiping away the tears. It also means that Leaders are not always able to find much time for themselves. Come prepared for this and remember that our reason for being on camp is the Campers and not each other. A good leader understands this is a mission experience.
- Leaders are also placed in a sporting team. This is a group of mixed ages and genders who participate in various events throughout the week in order to win a prize.
- Breakaway Camp encourages Leaders to get to know the children and their backgrounds on a more personal level. This is to encourage the young people and to share the love of Christ with them.
- To be a leader on Breakaway Camp, you need to regularly attend church and be actively involved at that church. This is required as children are able to see through 'fakes.' As such, if you claim that you are a Christian and yet your life does not reflect your faith, children at camp will see that and question whether you are practising what you preach. You also need to have a growing relationship with God to get through the week spent on camp. Camp will challenge you in ways you cannot predict, be prepared.
- Whilst on camp, Leaders are required to attend a Leader's meeting each day during which time devotions are held and the day is discussed. We also encourage Leaders to find some time during Camp to do personal spiritual quiet times.
- One final note is that after camp, Leaders are asked to keep up correspondence with the campers in their room. This encourages the campers to return each year and also encourages them in their relationship with God. Campers look forward to receiving mail from their leaders so this is seen as a vital component of the Breakaway ministry.
